

Conservation

The Hawk and Owl Trust aims to create a nationally important moorland conservation area devoted to

- enhancing wildlife
- preserving archaeological remains
- demonstrating the environmental benefit and sustainability of traditional moorland management techniques - especially when these are closely linked with coordinated conservation action.