

Local groups

Local groups in the Hawk and Owl Trust are an opportunity for members to get together to help fulfil the conservation objectives of the charity, to learn more about birds of prey and related subjects, and to meet with like-minded enthusiasts. Groups develop their own programmes, from regular evening talks to outings to observe wildlife, with active volunteer conservation work, from habitat improvement to nestbox installation and monitoring by licensed ornithologists.

 Local group events

 Kestrel Club
For young wildlife watchers

 Bath and West Wiltshire

 Dorset and South Somerset Group

 East Midlands group

 Mendip and Somerset Levels group

 North Somerset and Bristol

 South Gloucestershire

 Shropshire Peregrine Group

 Worcester Barn Owl Conservation Group

 Young Rangers

see also

- Local group events