

Volunteer wardens

Volunteering at Sculthorpe Moor Community Nature Reserve

Volunteer wardens

Can commit to a day or half day once a week, fortnight or month and are:

- interested in observing and recording information about the wildlife they see
- interested in talking to visitors and sharing information
- interested in helping with guided walks

Volunteer wardens are based on the accessible parts of the reserve: boardwalks and hides.

Anyone interested should contact Sculthorpe Moor Reserve